

CENTRAL BANK OF SEYCHELLES

P. O. Box 701, Victoria, Seychelles

PRESS RELEASE

Victoria – September 21, 2009

Withdrawal of R50 and R100 Seychelles Banknotes Without the Sailfish Foil.

The Central Bank of Seychelles is withdrawing from circulation the R50 and R100 Seychelles banknotes without the silver and gold Sailfish Foil respectively. These two denominations which were first issued in 1998 have since been replaced with banknotes of the same design but with upgraded security features.

Members of the public who are still in possession of the aforementioned banknotes will be able to exchange them at the Central Bank counter and any other commercial banks.

These banknotes will remain legal tender until September 30, 2009 after which they can only be exchanged at the Central Bank of Seychelles.
